DETAILED ACTION

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1 claim(s) 1-14, and 27-29, drawn to a method of increasing cardiac contractile function in a subject comprising altering the expression of sorcin in the heart via the delivery of a nucleic acid encoding sorcin.

Group 2, claim(s) 15-21, drawn to a method of identifying agents that modulates sorcin expression.

Group 3, claim(s) 22 and 23, drawn to a method of diagnosing a cardiac contractile function associated disorder comprising assaying for differences in sorcin expression in various patient populations.

Group 4, claim(s) 24-26, drawn to methods of treating or preventing heart failure comprising the use of compounds identified in Group 2, which is drawn to methods for identifying test agents that modulates sorcin expression.

The inventions listed as Groups 1-4 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group 1 requires in its special technical feature the modulation of sorcin expression towards a therapeutic purpose. Group 2, in contrast requires the special technical feature of screening a large number of candidate compounds directed towards identifying a novel feature that is modulation of sorcin expression. The special technical feature of group 3 uniquely requires assaying for differences in sorcin expression in different patient populations. The special technical feature of group 4 requires the use of compounds that have yet to be identified. Accordingly, the special technical feature of each group is not the same or is not corresponding.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include

(i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 1635

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
